Before you start

An unofficial fan-made manual

This booklet is not a LEGO product. It was generated from the model file by a computer program and checked part by part.

Not physically build-tested

The model and these steps were checked on a computer only: every part/colour is a real LEGO element, all 117 connections between parts were matched in 3D, no two parts overlap, every part can be pushed into place in its step, and the model's balance was estimated. Not tested: how firmly parts hold, part tolerances and how it copes with handling. Take your time and support the model while you work.

The finished model

About 3.8 × 6.0 cm and 6.9 cm tall, about 43 g (estimated).

Start with four paws, bridge them with the belly, and stack the low body and broad head. Add the ears, wide eyes and grin, then plant the oversized bulb on its back.

You will need

- The 48 pieces in 7 colours listed at the back, with their LEGO element IDs and BrickLink numbers.
- A brick separator for pieces that sit too deep for a finger.

Tips

- Sort the pieces by colour before you start.
- Build the sections in order: each sub-assembly is finished before it is used.
- New pieces in a step have a yellow outline; earlier pieces are drawn paler.

The 7 colours

- Dark Turquoise: 28
- Green: 7
- White: 6
- Dark Green: 3
- Dark Red: 2
- Black: 1
- Bright Green: 1

How to read the steps

Parts and step number

7

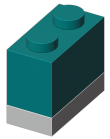

2x

The parts for the step and how many of each, then the step number. The parts of a step are drawn at one scale, so a longer one looks longer; a tile or a long plate also has its size in studs under it.

New parts

The parts added in a step have a yellow outline and are drawn in full colour; the parts from earlier steps are drawn paler.

Sub-assemblies

1x

A yellow-framed picture means: put in the sub-assembly you built in its own section. "Build 4x" means you need four of them.

Sections

Each section starts with its name at the top of the page. Sections are built in the order they appear.

Seen from below

When a step adds parts underneath, the picture shows the model from below. A small label says so (and "seen from behind" likewise). A piece the picture cannot show gets a small picture beside it, ringed in yellow, from the side it can be seen from: where it clicks in.

Insert direction

Some parts slide in sideways (axles through bearings, gears onto axles). The picture shows where they end up; push them in along their axle.

Build overview

The model is built in 2 sections. Each is finished before it is used.

2 × 4

The front and back of the low body

4

1x 2x

Fill the middle: a 1 x 2 brick with a 1 x 1 brick each side

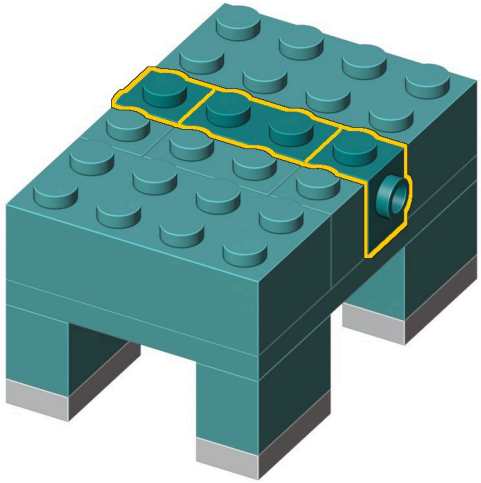

From behind: the outlined pieces.

5

1x 2x

Behind them the same again, with a stud on the side of each 1 x 1 brick, facing out: for the two leafy-green spots

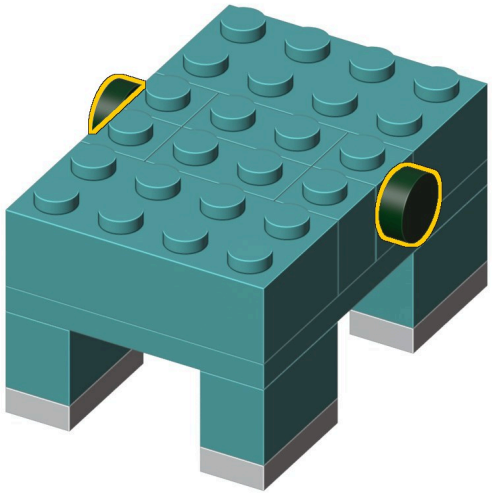

From behind: the outlined pieces.

6

2x

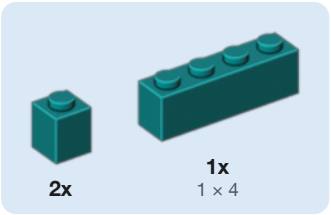

A green spot on each flank

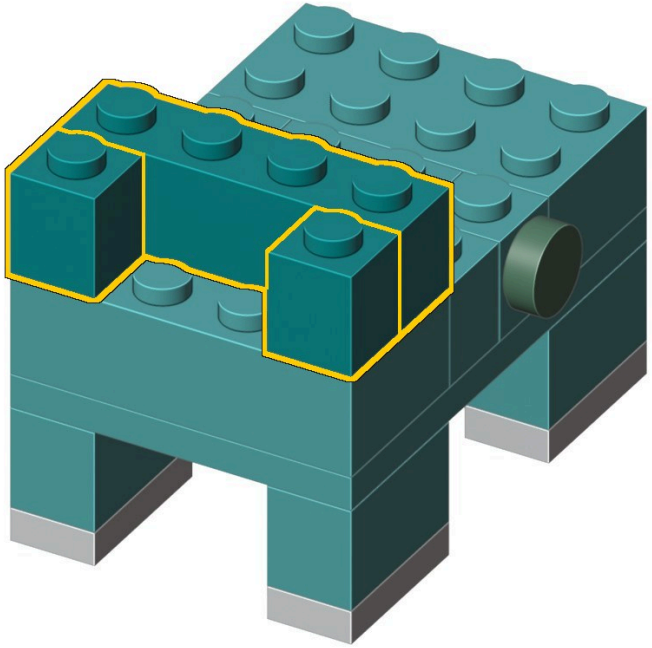

From behind: the outlined piece.

7

The lower head: a 1 x 4 brick and the two front corners

8

Between the corners, two bricks with a stud facing forward: for the grin

9

The upper head, with an outward stud at each cheek

10

A plate across the head

11

Two pointed ears and a green forehead marking

12

Smooth the top of the head: a tile on each front corner and one between the ears

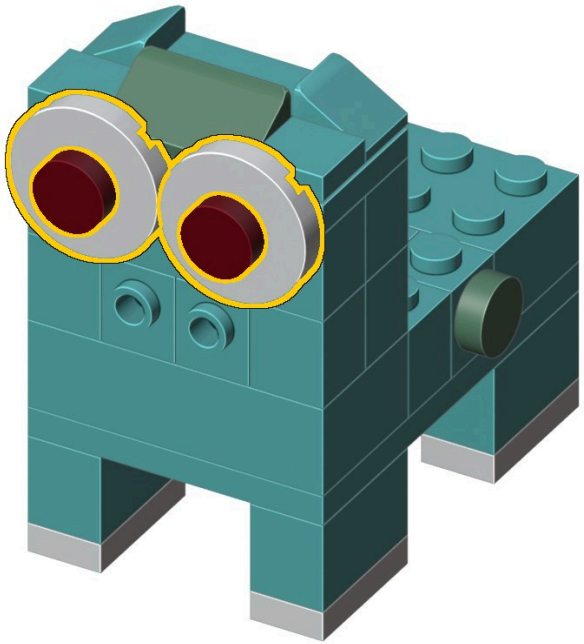

From behind: the outlined pieces.

13

Big white eyes, each with a red round pupil

14

A small curved black grin

Not yet built with real bricks

These checks catch most mistakes a designer can make, but not all: clutch power, part tolerances, how stiff a long axle is and how the model survives handling can only be judged with real bricks. If you build it, we would love to hear how it went.
